To our generous and anonymous friends in Christ,

We want to thank you for the generous financial gift that you gave to us this summer when we moved to Louisville. We apologize for the lateness of this word of thanks - of course we have been very busy getting things situated in our new apartment, and getting ready for school to begin. Jamie has already begun teaching classes at Christian Academy of Louisville, and Chris will begin classes this week. Things are coming together quite well.

We just want to thank you again for your help with our expenses, and for embracing us into the church family at FBC while we were there. We think of you often, and miss you. Please keep in touch with us as you are able. Oh, and if you need a caricature drawn for a gift or something, give Chris a call! (There's nothing wrong with a little "shameless promotion" to make a buck or two...especially when you're a student!)

God bless each of you.
Love, Chris and Jamie Marsh
