IN THE PULPIT

Farrell Isenberg

Farrell came to Crosspointe in 1990 when the church was known as Temple Baptist. He earned his bachelor's degree in 1979 in Biblical studies and church music from Campbellsville College and completed his Master of Divinity in 1989 at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is the primary speaker for our corporate worship services and spends much of his week visiting sick and bereaved members of the congregation. Farrell also seeks out God's vision for our congregation and provides leadership in the administration and ministry of the church. He and his wife Brenda have two adult children, Caleb and Cassie, and two granddaughters. In his free time he enjoys carpentry and spending time with his family.
